'Holy Envy: Finding God in the Faith of Others'

by
The Revd Barbara Brown-Taylor
at St. Paul's Cathedral on May 30th at 6.30 – 8 pm.

If there is only one God, why are there so many religions? Can our faith be improved by the faith of others, even with those we disagree? These questions and others will be discussed at this interesting evening.

The evening will be interpreted and you can book your free place online at <https://www.stpauls.co.uk/learning-faith/adult-learning>

Deaf Day 27th April 10am-4pm
City Lit, Keeley Street, London

Did you know... St. George was beheaded on 23rd April 304 AD for his courage to speak out the Gospel in a Pagan world. It was only 25 years later that the whole of the Roman Empire became Christian. It is during times of darkness that we are called to declare our faith and show the love of God to those around us.
