When will Deaf Church Meet Again?

When lockdown started back in March, none of us knew that six months later we would still have so many restrictions around our daily life. This has meant that Deaf Church has not met and we have had to watch our services online through Facebook and YouTube.

The Deaf Church leadership team had a meeting last week to discuss how we can start church again safely and what changes to make with our online services. We will start slowly with our first service at the end of the month in South Croydon and then review how things are before starting other services. Please note that our services will be changing to Zoom during September and we hope to be able to put these on Facebook afterwards.

Croydon Sign Church will meet as usual at 2.30pm at St. Peter's Church, South Croydon. Please bring a face covering with you and follow the instructions on arrival. This service will be live streamed through Zoom so you can attend from home if you would prefer.

How do I use Zoom?

Here is a really useful video in BSL about how to set up your Zoom connection.
